SECTION 6: ADVERSARIAL LEGAL ARGUMENTS

Grounds for Petitioner / Prosecution

1. Ultra Vires Acts of Ad-hoc Committee

Legal Ground: The Ad-hoc Committee appointed under Section 26-A of the Karnataka Societies Registration Act, 1960, is limited to day-to-day management and lacks the legislative/constituent power to amend bye-laws, which is reserved exclusively for the General Body under Section 8.

Procedural Violations:

- Unauthorized exercise of constituent power by an administrative body
- Exceeding the scope of the administrative order dated 28.08.2024

2. Violation of Notice and Agenda Requirements

Legal Ground: The amendment of bye-laws is a significant business item that cannot be introduced under the omnibus 'any other matter' clause without specific prior notice and a clear agenda circulated at least 21 days in advance.

Procedural Violations:

- Non-service of amendment circular to members
- Failure to include bye-law amendments in the formal AGM notice
- Lack of 21 clear days notice for substantive changes

Citations: Baldev Raj Bahl v. State of Punjab

3. Breach of Natural Justice and Non-Speaking Orders

Legal Ground: The District Registrar failed to observe audi alteram partem by not notifying dissenting members, and the Commissioner's revisional order is vitiated by a total non-application of mind and failure to record reasons.

Procedural Violations:

- Failure to issue notice to dissenting members during registration
- Issuance of a non-speaking order by the Commissioner
- Failure to conduct a summary inquiry into the validity of the AGM

Citations: Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India, S.N. Mukherjee v. Union of India, Steel Authority of India Ltd. v. Union of India

4. Constitutional Invalidity of Amendments

Legal Ground: The 80% caste-based reservation and the 10-fold increase in membership fees are discriminatory and operate to disentitle a large class of members, violating fundamental rights.

Procedural Violations:

- Implementation of discriminatory reservation policy
- Creation of financial barriers to membership rights

Citations: Indira Sahney v. Union of India, Thomas Dsouza v. State of Karnataka

Rebuttals & Submissions for Respondent / Defense

1. Democratic Legitimacy of the AGM

Defense Strategy: Assert that the amendments were passed by a majority of the members present during a validly convened Annual General Meeting.

Counter-Arguments:

- The 'any other matter' clause allows for the introduction of business at the discretion of the Chair
- The decisions of the General Body represent the democratic will of the Sangha

Mitigating Factors:

- Amendments are intended to serve the socio-economic welfare of the Kurubara community

2. Administrative Regularity

Defense Strategy: Defend the actions of the District Registrar and the Commissioner as being within their statutory mandate and administrative discretion.

Counter-Arguments:

- The Registrar acted upon a formal application under Section 12
- The Commissioner's order was a valid exercise of revisional jurisdiction

Mitigating Factors:

- Administrative finality and efficiency in society governance
